1962 - 2012

50 Years of British National Socialism

In the summer of 1962 - the newly founded NSM
- National Socialist Movement - held its inaugural rally in Trafalgar Square, where Colin Jordan proclaimed a re-birth of British National Socialism.

In 1968 the NSM became British Movement and the flame of British National Socialism has been carried by our movement ever since.

Times may have changed since 1962, but the threat to our country remains the same, only on a far greater scale. Immigration has continued almost unchecked, multi-racialism and multi-culturalism are eating into the heart of our nation and unlike 1962 - the many facets of multi-racial integration are protected by law.

National Socialist and racial Nationalist protests are heavily restricted and censored by punitive Race Relations laws and the 1986 Public Order Act.
The NS pioneers of Trafalgar Square in 1962 had much greater freedom of speech and expression than any NS activist could dream of today. Our rights to freedom of speech and protest are tightly limited and subject to draconian penalties if we breach them.

* * *

Our goal has to be to use the pressures and social tensions of life in modern Britain to open the eyes of our fellow White British to the terrible future ahead for our people unless they wake up the threat that cultural and racial diversity creates.

Our slogan 'Britain Awake!' means just that - the White British need to wake up to the meaning of the 14 Words.

National Socialism is the only solution.

WE WILL HAVE OUR COUNTRY BACK !

Smile ! You Are On CCTV Does City and Town Centre CCTV Mean that Racial Nationalist Street Activity is a Thing of the Past?

The Government has a new 'Surveillance Commissioner', his name is Andrew Rennison and he has recently spoken out in favour of a new range of high-definition, facial recognition developments for town centre CCTV cameras.

The technology is already in place and it is a little known secret that Britain has the most intensive CCTV coverage of towns, cities and motorways of any country in Western Europe.

As with the already established vehicle number-plate recognition camera systems on motorways and major roads, the new facial recognition systems can be shared across so-called 'law - enforcement' and State security services at the click of a switch.

This means that traditional political town centre activities like paper sales and leafleting shopping precincts is now open to high level scrutiny and the identification of individuals. Which in turn allows the State to build up its low level intelligence files and facilities Special Branch harassment, frame-ups and entrapment of key activists and organisers. So new types of activity strategies are needed.

Above is a recruitment advertisement for the British Security Services (MI5) the image of the type of person MI5 is looking to recruit is a mixed-race male with dreadlocks.

How do you think that such an MI5 officer would behave towards a British racial Nationalist or National Socialist he was sent to spy on ?

YOUTH

British Movement is working towards re-establishing an active youth section. The Youth of today will become the leaders and activists of our movement in the future.

In the late 1970's and early 1980's, British Movement was noted for its high levels of youth activism. Youth are the future of British NS resistance.

"You can never really trust Security Services (MI5), for they are in the business of constructing threats to security, and the weaker the evidence the more sinister the threat is thought to be."

A.W. Brian Simpson. author of 'In the Highest Degree Odious'

MULTI-RACIAL MADNESS

Broadsword looks at the stories and incidents drawn from across the media in Britain that best illustrate the depths into which our country has sunk as the Government, the media, the police and the Race Relations industry conspire against the indigenous British people to impose a multi-cultural society on Britain. How British culture, values and traditions are undermined by political correctness, minority interests and racial equality. Stories which reveal the harsh reality of life in a multi-cultural Britain and the betrayal of the White British majority population.

IMMIGRATION

IT IS A DIRECT THREAT TO A CONTINUING WHITE BRITISH MAJORITY POPULATION IN THE UK

In 2005, the Asian TV journalist Kenan Malik offered his considered opinion on British immigration controls. The Asian writer and journalist, Yasmin Alibhai-Brown has said of immigration, "So what if WE do become a majority? What difference does it make? IT MEANS THAT THE WHITE BRITISH WILL EVENTUALLY CEASE TO EXIST !

African Drug Smuggler at Belfast International Airport had Swallowed 22 packages of Heroin.

Manuel Gomez Da Silva, a 42 year old African from Guinea Bissau was arrested at Belfast International in October 2011. When X-rayed he coughed up the 22 packages of heroin he had swallowed and was trying to smuggle into Ulster. The heroin had an estimated street value of £21, 700. In October 2012 Da Silva was jailed for just 3 years at Antim Crown Court.

Roma Gypsy Fraudster Wins Human Rights Case to Stay in Britain

Lavinia Olmazu is a Romanian Roma Gypsy was an active member of a gang of fraudsters who channelled over £2.9 million from the UK to Romania. In total the fraud claimed false social security benefits for 170 Roma gypsies before being discovered. For her part in the fraud, Lavinia Olmazu was sentenced to 2 years and 3 months in prison, with a deportation order at the end of her imprisonment.

But she claimed the right to avoid deportation under Article Eight of the Human Rights Act, because she has a 12 year old son living with her in the UK. Olmazu claimed that her son did not speak Romanian fluently enough to return there and had was attending school in London, so deportation would breach their "rights to a family life."

HILLSBOROUGH

Was This British Justice ?

Or a Rare Insight Into How the Establishment Protects Itself,
Is This How the Police and Government Really Works?

APRIL 15th 1989 - The Hillsborough Disaster left 96 people dead - some of them children - but only now, over 20 years later is the dark curtain of the Establishment cover-up finally being lifted.

It is now accepted as fact that within hours of the last death being recorded, the Chief Constable of South Yorkshire, the senior police commander responsible for law and order across that area of the North of England, was gathering his senior officers at a private meeting in a restaurant to organise the cover-up and the re-writing of evidence and statements.

The Conservative Government of Prime Minister Margaret Thatcher received a special Cabinet briefing on events at Hillsborough; and although the Cabinet accepted the 'official' report on events, one senior civil servant warned Tory ministers that the report from South Yorkshire Police was very close to being totally dishonest. The Conservatives had needed the South Yorkshire Police on their side when the Thatcher Government had crushed the Miner's Strike and had behaved with sanctioned brutality in the Yorkshire coalfields. So the police were protected.

The Establishment stood firm and protected its own interests. As the years passed, the local Council, a Sheffield MP, and the media, all colluded with the police in denigrating the Hillsborough campaigners and denied their own wrong-doing.

These were the actions of a 'democratic dictatorship'.

Where was 'Law and Order' at Hillsborough?

Why have the families of the 96 victims of the Hillsborough Disaster had to wait so many years for even a glimmer of a chance of justice?

Why have successive British governments, both Labour and Conservative hidden behind the Establishment smokescreen of cover-up and corrupt police and media activities?

THE HILLSBOROUGH DISASTER SOME OBSERVATIONS

From the very beginning South Yorkshire Police rushed out press statements to put the blame for the disaster on the Liverpool fans.

A local Tory MP immediately supported the 'official' police version of events.

Sheffield City Council and Sheffield Wednesday Football Club knew that they had a part in the disaster and colluded with South Yorkshire Police to cover their tracks.

The media, both local and national were fed carefully distorted press releases to put the blame squarely on the Liverpool fans and to denigrate the victims.

The worst example of the media parroting the Establishment lies was the now notorious front page of The Sun newspaper.

The police and the media knew that the ordinary working-class people who were the victims of Hillsborough could not match the power and expensive legal protection that would be used to shield South Yorkshire Police, Sheffield City Council and the board-members of Sheffield Wednesday Football club who owned the Hillsborough grounds.

Hillsborough proved that the South Yorkshire Police were not interested in truth and justice.

THE POLICE AND HILLSBOROUGH COVER - UP : -

WAS THERE A MASONIC CONNECTION ?

So far the fingers of suspicion have been pointed at South Yorkshire Police and at the involvement of West Midlands Police in the follow up inquiry and inquests.

However nobody has raised the question about the possible role of Freemasons and Masonic lodge membership amongst the senior police officers involved in the cover-up and the conspiracy to conceal the guilt of the police and related bodies in the disaster at the Hillsborough stadium.

It is well documented that during the 1980's and 1990's, there was a high level of police membership in the Freemasons and some police forces maintained their own exclusive Masonic lodges.

Deportation of Illegal Immigrants and Roma Gypsies

Lessons that the British Government can Learn from the French

To quote the 'Daily Mail',

*"It took us 10 years to clear Dale Farm.
But France's ruling Socialists have smashed six Roma camps in as many weeks."*

Of course the sting in the tail is that many of the Roma being cleared out of France are dodging deportation and are actively trying to enter the UK illegally.

In July of this year, the French authorities successfully cleared out 300 Roma and Serbian gypsy families from an illegal site near Aix-en-Provence. Unfortunately for the UK, the fact that Roma are being discouraged from entering France has led to them looking for a softer option -

"We have talked about going to the United Kingdom. It is a very well-off country.

We have heard stories of people who have gone there. The UK has a good social welfare system too."

GERMANY

August 2012 - More Police Raids More Persecution of German Nationalists

North-Rhine Westphalia : A massive task-force of more than 900 police officers raided the homes and premises of German racial Nationalists.

Acting on the orders of the regional Interior Minister Ralf Jaeger, police squads smashed down doors, arrested known Nationalists and seized computers, political literature, flags and personal property. In an excuse for the blatant acts of political persecution, the Minister issued a press statement claiming that,

"These groups are anti-foreigner, they are racist and they are anti-Semitic."

The German government seems hell-bent on purging German society of any elements that oppose multi-culturalism and try to defend their country against Third World immigration.

It seems that German racial Nationalists and National Socialists increasingly have no rights under German law, other than to face arrest for expressing their political opinions.

AUSTRALIA

Detention Camps for Asylum-Seekers

In a rare display of common sense, the Australian Government has announced that illegal immigrants and asylum-seekers who try to land in Australia by boat, will be deported to detention camps on isolated Pacific islands. In recent years Australia has seen an upsurge in ships and boats loaded with economic migrants and so-called 'asylum-seekers' from China and South-East Asia landing on Australia's northern coast.

These 'asylum-seekers' have often travelled through several countries before putting to sea, they have paid smugglers and 'people traffickers' to get them to Australia.

In one reported case an Afghan 'refugee' told the Australian authorities how he had travelled from Parwan province in Afghanistan, through Pakistan, Thailand, Malaysia and Indonesia before boarding a boat, intending to land illegally in Australia. His boat was intercepted off Christmas Island in the Pacific Ocean. The Australian Government is under tremendous international pressure to accept thousands of asylum-seekers by the United Nations refugee agencies, but the majority of those on the boats are really economic migrants looking for a Western lifestyle with all the benefits of housing, health care and welfare payments.

Pressure on the Australian Government increased this year when two boats filled with 'refugees' capsized and sank in June, drowning more than 90 passengers. The people smugglers use any vessel they can get cheaply, with no regard to sea-worthiness. The drowning of asylum-seekers is being used as moral blackmail to force the Australians to accept refugees and to stop intercepting the boats and putting the refugees in remote detention camps.

So far the Australian Government has resisted liberal and Left-wing pressure, so called 'humanitarian' grounds. The pro-immigration organisations claim that over 600 people have drowned at sea in the past 3 years trying to reach Australia. The current policy is to detain them on Nauru and Manus islands, with some being taken to detention centres on Tasmania.

The Australian authorities are trying to reach a deal with Papua New Guinea to take some of the migrants but most of the refugees are only interested in getting into Australia. In August 2012 alone, the Australian Navy intercepted more than 650 refugees on boats trying to reach Australia.

Every year Australia already accepts more than 13,750 refugees on 'humanitarian' grounds - The United Nations (UNHCR) is trying to force Australia to increase this to over 27,000 per year. With typical liberal single-mindedness, they fail to see that this will just act as a signal for many more thousands to board the boats, because Australia will be seen as an easy touch.

Fighting the curse of multi-culturalism and illegal immigration in Greece. Golden Dawn activists in Athens have organised street patrols in those areas plagued by immigrant crime; such as muggings, drug dealers and street beggars. The success of Golden Dawn in the Greek elections has galvanised the Greek Government into tackling the massive problem of illegal immigration into Greece.

August 2012 saw a major crackdown on illegal immigrants by the police in Athens, more than 17,000 people were detained and more than 3,000 marked for deportation. Some immigrants have voluntarily returned to their home countries, as they no longer feel welcome in Greece.

In the current chaotic climate of the Greek economy, Golden Dawn has opened kitchens and food distribution centres in Athens and other major cities to help feed struggling Greek families.

BRITISH SOCIETY IN 2012 SOMETHING BETTER CHANGE!

Contrary to What Our Political Opponents Say British Movement is Not Promoting Hatred For Any Particular Racial Group or Ethnic Minority; Our National Socialist Programme is About Ensuring the Survival and Preservation of the White British Population, British Culture, British Traditions and British Heritage and the British Identity.

14 WORDS:- We Must Secure the Existence of Our People and a Future For White Children

SEX-GROOMING CASES BY ASIAN GANGS

IT GOES ON AND ON AND ON.....

The prosecution of Asian gangs who have groomed under-age (mostly) White British girls for sex seems to continue with a sickening regularity. The Government and the media made concerned noises when the Heywood/Rochdale case hit the headlines; but that was just the latest after earlier cases in Keighley, Bradford, Blackburn, Leicester, Derby and Birmingham.

Now it is the turn of Oxford and Rotherham.

This is not about cultural differences and a few 'rough' individuals - it is about race and the fall-out from mass non-white immigration into Britain for decades. Our culture and values are not respected. Mass repatriation will end it all.

CONSIDER THIS

A nation can survive its fools, and even the ambitious. But it cannot survive treason from within. An enemy at the gates is less formidable, for he is known and he carries his banners openly.

But the traitor moves among those within the gate freely, his sly whispers rustling through all the alleys, heard in the very hall of government itself.

For the traitor appears not traitor - he speaks in the accents familiar to his victims, and wears their face and their garments, and he appeals to the baseness that lies deep in the hearts of all men. He rots the soul of a nation - he works secretly and unknown in the night to undermine the pillars of a city - he infects the body politic so that it can no longer resist. A murderer is less to be feared.

Cicero. 42 B.C.

Is There A Pattern Here ?

Colin Jordan asserted that British politics was slowly being manipulated into a quasi-communist model. This was communism by stealth, freedom of speech and political opinion was being curtailed in stages, a what Colin Jordan referred to as the planned 'Path of Repression'.

The 'Path of Repression' being;

The Race Relations Act - 1965.

(Introduced by Home Secretary Frank Soskice)

The Race Relations Act - 1976

The Public Order Act - 1986

(Introduced by Home Secretary Leon Brittan)

The Criminal Justice and Public Order Act - 1994

(Introduced by Home Secretary Michael Howard)

Any body notice a pattern here?

British Movement is a National Socialist organisation working towards the creation of a National Socialist counter-culture in Britain, building up a National Socialist alternative than will eventually lead to the creation of a grass-roots N.S mass movement and ultimately a National Socialist Folk Community.

Where BM Stands

14 Words

"We must secure the existence of our people and a future for White children."

We cannot build the National Socialist Folk Community in one generation, we must look towards a long term strategy and build for the future, we must draw young people into the ranks of our Movement because they will be the standard-bearers of tomorrow, they will carry the torch of resurgent British National Socialism as the guiding light for our people into the New Dawn.

Youth is the Way Forward

Hatred will not build our mass NS movement, but the will of our people and the determination to ensure the survival of the White British and the love of our Folk will bind our people together into the Folk Community on which a National Socialist Britain will be created.

BRITISH MOVEMENT SAYS THE SENTENCE IS NOT HARSH ENOUGH!

September 2012 : - Southampton pervert, Darren Mackrell, age 45, has been sentenced to an indefinite prison sentence, the judge told him he would serve at least 10 years before he could be considered for parole.

Only 10 years ?

Consider what this vile specimen did in a pre-planned and carefully orchestrated operation to befriend, drug and sexually abuse three children.

His victims were two boys aged 8 years and 10 years of age and a girl aged 9 years. Darren Mackrell befriended one of the children in a local park and lured all three back to his flat in Southampton where he held them for 6 hours while he used them for his twisted sexual gratification.

Mackrell, a known drug addict, forced the children to smoke cannabis, strip naked and take Viagra, amphetamine and temazepam.

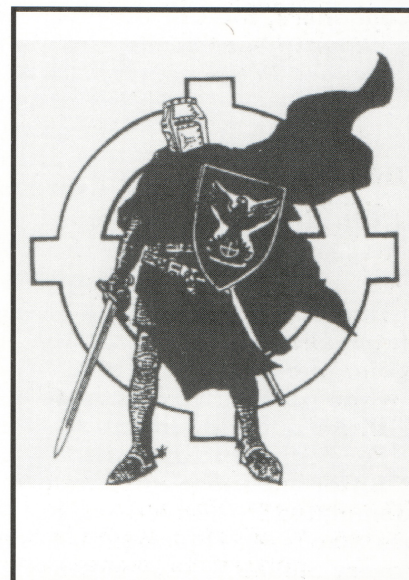

He raped both boys and the girl while playing hard core pornographic films in the same room at the same time. Mackrell then forced the children to engage in sexual acts with each other and threatened one boy with a large knife when he tried to escape. Police searching for the children broke into Mackrell's flat to free them, and the hard-core films were still playing on his TV. When arrested, Mackrell admitted a total of 18 offences against the three children, most were sexual offences, others involved administering drugs to a child..

Mackrell is not fit to live in normal society, he is a danger to children.

Most British citizens will recognise the name of the charity 'Save the Children', it is a liberal led organisation that has campaigned and fund-raised for years, spending its money on feeding the starving millions in Africa, Asia and South America.

Until now. On September 5th 2012, 'Save the Children' announced that it is launching a campaign against child poverty in Britain for the first time.

According to the charity's figures, there are now three and a half million children in the UK who are living below the poverty line.

'Save the Children' believes that by 2015 it will be even higher.

National Socialism is the guardian of Britain's traditional moral standards. British Movement calls for a national crusade against moral degeneracy. Clear out the drug dealers and the sub-culture of street drugs.

Crack down on perverts and sexual degenerates.

London On London

A National Socialist View of Life in Britain's Capital City
The Struggle For Survival of White British Londoners in the Swamp of Multi-Racial Chaos and Enforced 'Diversity' That Has Taken Over Greater London

By Broadsword correspondent Ed London.

IS LONDON A LOST CAUSE?

How Many British Racial Nationalists Believe This To Be The Case ?

Do We Give Up On Our Capital City And Accept That London Is Now Not British But An International City?

On Saturday August 11th 2012, BBC2 television broadcast a two hour long programme called 'London - The Modern Babylon' which examined the history of London and its population from the end of the 19th Century to today. Not suprisingly the documentary was full of pro-immigration, liberal, multi-culturalist propaganda.

There were one or two moments of light relief in the shape of archive film footage of Sir Oswald Mosley and the British Union of Fascists, brief newsreel clips of Colin Jordan and the White Defence League in the 1950's, and some news coverage of National Front marches in the late 1970's.

Unfortunately, the common thread through the programme was to exaggerate the multi-racial nature of London and to present the current situation in London of many thousands of non-white, non-British immigrants as just a continuation of what London has always been about. But it was very quiet about the loss of the traditional Londoners, the Cockney working-class and the 'White-flight' of many thousands of Londoners out into Essex, Kent, Hertfordshire and beyond in the 1960's, 70's and 80's to escape the incoming tidal waves of non-white immigrants.

So is London a lost cause for British racial Nationalists?

We have to believe that London can be taken back by the White British, just as we campaign under the slogan,

"We Will Have Our Country Back !" - so too we must include the message - " We Will Take London Back!" or perhaps the slogan, "London Will Be British Again!"

The situation calls for a change of mindset amongst British racial Nationalists and National Socialists, while it is true that there is little point in campaigning in some areas of London because there are no white people living in those districts anymore, it is still possible to throw out a life-line to the increasingly isolated and beleaguered pockets of white Londoners in some areas.

Bitter experience has taught us that some boroughs are not only dominated by non-whites, but the political system in those boroughs has also been hi-jacked by the liberals and political Left, who will use every means at their disposal, both legal and illegal to defend their monopoly of the local authority and to maintain the stranglehold of multi-culturalism in those parts of the capital.

The task ahead of us is monumental, but it has to be a case of 'when' we reclaim London for the white British, not 'if' we can.

It may well take decades of hard and bitter campaigning, with many set-backs; the odds are heavily stacked in the opposition's favour; not only do 'they' have an advantage in terms of the increasing non-white population, but they control most of the council's in the Greater London area; central London is home to the Government and all its apparatus of power; the Metropolitan Police is the para-military arm of multi-culturalism, its own policy statements declare its intention to defend and protect 'community cohesion and diversity'.

Plus we have the added negative of the London Mayor's office, currently occupied by 'Bo-Jo' the blond-bombshell of Tory mis-rule, he courts all forms of ethnic minority support on a daily basis.

It can be done! We just have to be determined and have the will!

THE 2012 LONDON OLYMPICS A TRIUMPH FOR BRITAIN ? OR A TRIUMPH FOR MULTI-CULTURAL PROPAGANDA?

Oh, how the multi-culturalists have trumpeted the London Olympics as a triumph of 'their' vision of a diverse and multi-racial Britain. Massive media attention has been given to those non-white members of the so-called 'Team GB', especially the medal winners.

But are they really and truly British?

How can the runner Mo Farah be called British ?

He is a Somali, with family members in Somaliland and Ethiopia. Mo Farah regularly visits his mother, brothers and sisters in East Africa, sponsors charities in Somalia, where he is regarded as a Somali sporting hero, and yet he is upheld in the UK as a BRITISH athlete!

So much so that the BBC has suggested that Mo Farah be short-listed for inclusion as one of its contenders for the award as BBC Sports Personality of the Year.

WE WILL HAVE OUR COUNTRY BACK !

The above item was the G2 supplement of the Guardian newspaper on Thursday 13th September 2012.

Entitled; "10 Myths About the Far-Right" the feature was actually a plug for a new book called, "Bloody Nasty People: The Rise of Britain's Far-Right," which is yet another piece of anti-racist/anti-fascist propaganda masquerading as an academic work. The Left seem to be obsessed with the need to constantly undermine what they perceive to be the ever present 'fascist menace', the threat to their unstable multi-cultural society.

The Left and the Liberals Constantly Seek to Re-Assure Themselves That a Multi-Cultural/Multi-Racial Britain is a 'Done Deal'. In Reality They Realise That It Isn't.

The Guardian article featured opposite posed a number of questions about what it chose to label 'the Far-Right' in British politics and offered suitably re-assuring answers for its soft-Left/liberal readership.

However the author of the piece, Daniel Trilling offers very limited terms of reference, restricting his so-called analysis to the BNP and the EDL, with single references to the NF and the English Democrats. A very telling statement about the political platform of British racial Nationalism as perceived by Trilling was in the mis-understanding of 'our' opposition to multi-culturalism and immigration;

One of the so-called "Far-Right Myths" it claims to undermine is; "Anti-racism has been imposed on the white working class by a politically correct elite."

Ignoring the obvious that this has been proven many times over, Trilling claims to refute this by the single example of a white trade unionist from Essex who championed an anti-racist campaign in the Ford factory in Dagenham and helped to secure special facilities for Asian and black co-workers.

Apparently this proves that anti-racial discrimination and equal opportunities for non-whites has been won by the actions of working class white people. This totally ignores the imposition of the Race Relations laws by governments and Left-wing social policies driven by Left wing academics and Marxist sociologists. Trilling shows a complete lack, or at best an unwillingness to understand a political perspective based on Race and racial identity.

British Movement takes a steadfast National Socialist position that a multi-cultural Britain is not a permanent irreversible situation. British Movement will not accept the concept that the future of Britain has to be multi-racial or multi-cultural, the position can be reversed and through a radical, racially defined political agenda, a White British, mono-cultural Folk Community can be restored.

PASSING ON THE BATON

The Legacy of Arnold Leese and Colin Jordan to British Racial Nationalist Politics

Arnold S Leese
in the uniform of the IFL - Imperial Fascist
League in the 1930's

The roots of modern British National Socialism were handed down in the post-1945 period by Arnold Leese to Colin Jordan, founder of British Movement. Broadsword looks at that legacy and its meaning today.

This article was actually inspired by a recent Left-wing academic essay which offered, amongst other things, an analysis of the ideological legacy of both Arnold Leese and Colin Jordan to what the essay described as, "various generations of British fascists."

Therefore it is only right and proper that Broadsword looks at the ideological legacy of two key figures in British racial Nationalist politics and their continuing influence today and into the future.

Both men, Arnold Leese and Colin Jordan were products of their time, both were shaped by their life experiences and their exposure to the political events of their day.

Arnold Leese had served as an officer in the British Army, seeing much overseas service in the days of the British Empire. Leese served as an officer during the First World War and returned to civilian life as a veterinary surgeon, an author of books relating to animal welfare and a world expert on camels and their diseases.

In the late 1920's, Arnold Leese was one of the founding officers of the Imperial Fascist League, the masthead of its newspaper 'The Fascist' espoused the politics of what it called 'Racial Fascism'. For the first time in British politics, the subject of race and racial identity was being put forward as the foundations of an ideology. As time and world events progressed, by the mid-1930's, the Imperial Fascist League was openly embracing National Socialism.

Although the IFL never developed into a mass movement, and was always over-shadowed by the larger and better resourced British Union of Fascists, (BUF) led by Sir Oswald Mosley, Arnold Leese and the IFL published and circulated a large number of political booklets, pamphlets and other writings which reached a readership way beyond the bounds of the IFL membership.

Arnold Leese and the IFL were committed to exploring and explaining what was called in the 1930's, 'The Jewish Question'. The IFL was a dedicated anti-communist organisation, but placed most of its focus on exposing and challenging the levels of Jewish influence in British political, economic, cultural and social life. The writings of Arnold Leese were closely linked to the publications of the Britons Publishing Society, and his newspaper, 'The Fascist' began to borrow its style and format from the German newspaper, 'Der Stuermer' which was published by Julius Streicher in Nuremberg. Arnold Leese described himself as being 'Jew Wise' and in 1936 was put on trial and sentenced to six months imprisonment for publishing a booklet on the subject of Jewish ritual murders.

He later defended his writings in his book, "My Irrelevant Defence"

Arnold Leese opposed the outbreak of war between Britain and Germany in 1939, and was then arrested and imprisoned without trial under the notorious Defence Regulations 18b.

He was eventually released from prison at the end of the war, but was briefly imprisoned again for assisting two escaped Waffen-SS POW's.

In the late 1940's he began publishing his anti-Jewish, anti-Zionist bulletin "British Angles", which then became his news-letter "Gothic Ripples".

Although he no longer operated a formally established organisation, he continued to collaborate with the Britons Publishing Society, and maintained a network of contacts both across the UK and world-wide. Arnold Leese supported a number of racial Nationalist publications and organisations financially, as well as operating his own office for monitoring Jewish and Zionist influence in Britain and across the world.

He also continued to research, write and publish books and pamphlets. Arnold Leese died in 1956.

Passing On The Baton

"The starting point for hope and improvement is acceptance that Race is the basis of politics. At last the lesson must be learnt that culture and civilisation come from race, and social cohesion comes from the particularities of race, and that 'diversity' causes social disintegration and creates conflict."

"What we must fight for is to safeguard the existence and reproduction of our race and our people, the sustenance of our children and the purity of our blood, the freedom and independence of the fatherland, so that our people may mature for the fulfillment of the mission allotted it by the creator of the universe."

Adolf Hitler

Colin Jordan always maintained that his first real political influence was Arnold Leese.

Colin Jordan had grown up during the 1920's and 1930's, saw military service during the Second World War, but was never in armed combat.

He became involved in emerging racial Nationalist political groups prior to being demobilised in 1946. Colin Jordan left the Army and became a student at Cambridge University where he helped to establish the Cambridge University Nationalist Club.

He was by this time corresponding with Arnold Leese, and visited Leese at his home in Pewley Hill, near Guildford in Surrey. Colin Jordan remembered his first meeting with Leese, the old Fascist greeted the young Colin Jordan with the words,

"Democracy is Death ! The Jews are our misfortune ! Fascism is the only solution !"

These were the slogans of his pre-war IFL, neither prosecution nor imprisonment had altered his beliefs at all. Arnold Leese recognised a kindred spirit in Colin Jordan and introduced him to all his writings.

Colin Jordan readily embraced the influence of Arnold Leese and Leese began to support Colin Jordan's early political publications and introduced him to many of his network of political contacts. By now Colin Jordan was an organiser for the Duke of Bedford's British Peoples Party (BPP) and began writing his first book, "Fraudulent Conversion".

Arnold Leese supplied the funds for Colin Jordan to get his book published.

After a couple of years, Colin Jordan resigned from the BPP and became an active member of the League of Empire Loyalists, he soon became the Midlands Organiser for the LEL and was arrested for his part in an anti-Soviet demonstration in London.

Colin Jordan quit the LEL over its lack of policy towards the Jews, and founded the Birmingham Nationalist Club, Arnold Leese provided funds to produce the BNC bulletins and leaflets. By now 'coloured immigration' into Britain was becoming a political issue and Colin Jordan came to the forefront as a leading racial Nationalist activist.

In 1958, Colin Jordan founded his first national organisation, the White Defence League and was given the use of a building in London by the widow of Arnold Leese, at 74 Princedale Road in Holland Park. Using this building as a base, Colin Jordan built up his organisation and published thousands of anti-immigration posters and leaflets, also a newspaper called "Black & White News". The White Defence League achieved national media coverage and for the first time he was interviewed on TV. Colin Jordan became a nationally recognised figure and was a key figure in a series of organisations; the original British National Party in the early 1960's, the National Socialist Movement from 1962 to 1968; he founded British Movement and led BM until 1975. From then until his death in 2009, Colin Jordan researched, wrote and published, always campaigning for National Socialism.

This is the legacy of Arnold Leese and Colin Jordan to modern British National Socialism and racial Nationalism, they led the way and provided the foundations built on their writings and their actions.

Arnold Leese helped to fund Colin Jordan's earliest political ventures and 'CJ's' first book, 'Fraudulent Conversion' in 1955. Leese defiantly described himself as an 'anti-Jewish Camel-Doctor'.

Fighting the Race Laws

The First Priority of Any True Racial-Nationalist Party Must Be a Determined Drive for the Total Abolition of the Race Relations Laws and the Race Industry

An article by Tony B.

Organised Knowledge - the key to Racial survival.

An essential element for ensuring White racial survival is a knowledge of the enemy and the forces that would destroy our Race. That such forces exist can easily be verified by the fact that the White British alone are denied, by the Establishment and media, rights which are extended to every other racial group in the United Kingdom.

The Commission for Racial Equality and the present Race Relations laws are a prime example of this, as their main purpose is in fact to discriminate against Whites in favour of non-whites, and by definition should themselves be regarded as illegal and unconstitutional, as they deny White British people, basic human rights such as freedom of speech, freedom of association, and even presume, via allegation of 'racial hatred' - to tell us what to think ! Given, therefore, that there is an enemy at work deliberately striving for our destruction, it surely follows that it is the most arrant folly to attempt to co-operate with an Establishment, (and the Race Relations industry) bent on our destruction.

In 2006, I wrote an article on Britain's Race laws in which I said, "...the first priority..of any true racial-nationalist party must be a determined drive for the total abolition of the Race Laws and the Race Industry.... failure to recognise this fact will mean that the enemy will simply introduce yet another law and will eventually render us political eunuchs."

Our policy must be an uncompromising determination that our race will survive, equal in strength and determination to those that wish to destroy it.

That means that White Nationalists, the world over must have as their ultimate goal, a drive to secure for all the White peoples, areas of territory in the world exclusively under their control and exclusively for their use and occupation.

This policy would undoubtedly bring accusations of extremism and racism from the British Establishment, but that same demand on the part of any other race would raise no objections from them whatsoever.

This idea brings to mind a statement by the late, great American racial Nationalist Dr. William Pierce: -

"No group of people can hope to gain control of their destiny unless they possess three essential things:

- i) The will to survive as a people.*
- ii) Knowledge and*
- iii) an intimate knowledge of the enemies of their people.*

He/She, the Nationalist, needs more than a mere jumble of facts in their head; they must have organised knowledge acquired with purpose in mind....

A Nationalist needs a sense of identity with and an understanding of who they are..... which can only come from a broad knowledge of the history of their people; their distant origins and characteristics, strengths and weaknesses, and the way they have been shaped by centuries of events, and of the present challenges facing them."

The above required qualities outlined so well by Dr. Pierce are the very qualities that are often so tragically absent in the majority of the indigenous White Anglo-Celtic British people today. As testimony of this, witness the tragicomic spectacle during the last World Cup of the White England fans working themselves into a frenzy of euphoria because a Black player in an England shirt scored a goal that enabled a 1.0 victory over a country (Slovenia), which has a quarter of the population of that of London.

(A pattern repeated in the London 2012 Olympics where the British media whipped up a storm of celebration around a former Somali asylum-seeker Mo Farah, running as a member of 'Team GB' and hailed as a great 'British' sporting hero.)

This situation begs the question, " How can a people whose racial ancestors' intelligence, courage, national pride and enterprise created the greatest Empire in world history, and was responsible for the Industrial Revolution, which founded so much of modern civilisation, have undergone such a bizarre and totally unnatural transformation in a matter of a few decades?

To answer this, I refer again to the late Dr. Pierce who, in an article referring to the control of the American media said, "There is no greater power in the world today than that wielded by the manipulators of public opinion in America. No king or pope of old, no conquering general or high priest, ever disposed of a power even remotely approaching that of a few dozen people who control America's mass news and media.

Their power is not distant and impersonal; it reaches into every home in America and works its will nearly every waking hour. It is the power that shapes and moulds the minds of virtually every citizen - young and old, rich or poor, simple or sophisticated. It forms our image of the world and then tells us what to think about that image....everything we know or think we know about events outside our own neighbourhood or circle of acquaintances comes to us via our daily newspapers, our radio and our television,"

(Also the Internet)

This is also completely true of the media in the United Kingdom and Western Europe.

As Dr. Pierce also put it.

"We must shrink from NOTHING in combating this evil power which has fastened its deadly grip on our people and is injecting its deadly poison into their minds and souls. If we fail to destroy it, it will certainly destroy our race."

* This article was distilled down from a number of earlier articles by the author which appeared in other racial Nationalist publications several years ago.

FORGOTTEN WARRIORS

THE BRITISH FREE CORPS

Part 1 of a new Broadsword series

By DS 88

A British Free Corps volunteer in Waffen-SS uniform.
The recruiting poster for the Waffen-SS - distributed around wartime POW camps in Germany and Poland.

The history of the British volunteers in the ranks of the Waffen-SS in the Second World War, is a subject known to few outside the ranks of military history enthusiasts. So it came as some surprise when, in June 2012, the 'One Show' on BBC1 television, carried a story about Alfred Minchin, who had served in the BFC as a junior NCO.

The 'One Show' report centred around the late Alfred Minchin's grand daughter and her 'shock' discovery of her grandfather's war time service in the armed forces of the Third Reich.

The BFC

The soldier in the middle of the picture is Alfred Minchin, subject of the BBC1 'One Show' report

So who were the British Free Corps?

As the 3rd Reich over-ran much of Europe in the Second World War, numerous Waffen SS volunteer units were formed from the 'Nordic' countries.

This action was encouraged by SS Reichsfuhrer Heinrich Himmler, who stated "We must attract all the Nordic blood in the world to us, and so deprive our enemies of it, so that never again will Nordic or Germanic blood fight against us."

Men joined the ranks of the SS from most European countries, especially after the June 1941 invasion of Russia, and the Fuhrer's much publicised 'Crusade against Bolshevism'. The volunteers signed up for a two year term, with German citizenship granted at the end of their service. Over one million non-Germans joined the SS. Freiwilligen Legion Nederland was for Dutch volunteers, Legion Flandern catered for volunteers from the Flemish region of Belgium, whilst the Walloons were led by the legendary Leon Degrelle in the 28th Freiwilliger Panzergrenadier Division 'Wallonien'. Volunteers also came from such countries as Denmark, Norway, Switzerland, Finland, Croatia, Ukraine, Latvia, Hungary, Spain, Sweden, France and many others including Russian Cossacks. One seldom mentioned band of volunteers were formed into the Britisches Freikorps or the British Free Corps (BFC).

The BFC was the brain- child of John Amery, the eldest son of Secretary for India of the British Government, the Rt. Hon. Leopold Stennet Amery MP. John Amery had fought against communism in the Spanish Civil War, where he gained Spanish citizenship. After that war, he moved to France and subsequently in 1942, to Germany where he broadcast radio messages to Britain calling for peace between Britain and Germany.

(Six of these broadcasts are available in booklet form entitled 'John Amery Speaks 1942').

He founded firstly 'The Legion of St. George' which was to be a non-combat unit made up of British prisoners of war, to spread the National Socialist message to other POW's. When the Wehrmacht High Command insisted on the Legion being a combat unit, he formed as an off-shoot the British Anti-Bolshevik League. On January 1st 1944, the BFC was officially born out of these two groups; the British volunteers signed a pledge which read: - "I, (name of the volunteer) being a British subject, consider it my duty to offer my services in the common European struggle against Communism, and hereby apply to enlist in the British Free Corps."

Interestingly, before the BFC came into being a number of British volunteers had fought in some SS 'Totenkopf' units. In May 1940 a Waffen SS manpower report mentions British volunteers serving in the SS 'Totenkopf' Division and Standarten units. The leadership of the BFC is shrouded in mystery. Amery himself soon resigned from the Corps as he wanted the volunteers to wear British uniforms, but the SS insisted on the wearing of SS uniforms with British insignia; Union Jack armshields and Three Lions collarpatches. Amery moved to Italy where he became an advisor to Mussolini.

SS Hauptsturmfuhrer Hans Roepke then took command of the BFC. He was replaced in November 1944 by SS Obersturmfuhrer Dr. Kuehlich. By 1945, a 'Captain Webster', a British Army officer was also involved in the leadership of the unit.

By Spring 1945 the BFC were sent to Steinhofel where the III SS Panzer Corps (Germanic) headquarters were situated, under the command of Obergruppenfuhrer Felix Steiner, where the BFC volunteers were assigned to the SS Nordland Division. It was within this division that many of them saw action in defence of Berlin, although many Britons also saw active service with the SS Leibstandarte.

The Ideological Roots of 21st Century National Socialism

The Ideological Roots of Modern National Socialism are to be Found in the Principles and Theories Laid Down in the Germanic-SS in the 1940's.

The Germanic-SS Developed the Concept of a Pan-European National Socialist Movement Which Embraced All European Nations. Those ideals Spread Beyond 1945 and Evolved Into the Form of National Socialism Advocated by British Movement Today.

A Fanfare For National Socialism !
Trumpeters and Drummers of the Hitler Youth, A dramatic image from Germany in the 1930's, it was the combination of the heraldry, the uniforms, the comradeship and the sense of a unified Nation, a Folk in step, united by blood and belief that created the same power and drive that Britain and the British people need today.

German National Socialist Philosopher Alfred Rosenberg Wrote A Short Essay Called "The Nordic Soul" - Below Broadsword Reproduces A Short Extract.

THE NORDIC SOUL

History must be judged from the point of view of race.... knowledge of the values of the soul of a race, these which are the motivating power behind the new philosophy, National Socialism, these are not actually part of the general knowledge yet. Soul means race seen from within. Conversely, race is but the exterior of the soul. To call life the soul of race is to recognise its supreme value and, given its guidance, to give the other values their material position. In the state these values are art and religion. This is the task of our century; to create a new type of man backed by a new myth motivating life.....

Race consciousness makes one aware of the fact that new supreme values are created which cannot exist with equal rights; indeed they are mutually exclusive...The new consciousness makes one aware of the fact that those things of the soul and of race must always take precedence over other values.

BLOOD

In blood you carry the sacred heredity of your fathers and forefathers. You do not know them, these who go in an unending line into the darkness of the past. But all are alive in you and through your blood go today over the entire Earth. Because of this, your blood is sacred. Through it your parents gave you not only your body but your being. To deny your blood is to deny yourself. Everyone has the ability to increase the good part of his inheritance and suppress the bad part, for everyone was given will and courage. You have not only the right, but the duty, to transmit your blood through your offspring, for you are a link in the chain of a race which stretches from long ago to the distant future. The chain must never be broken. If your blood carries, however, qualities which make your children unhappy and makes them a burden upon the state, then you have the heroic duty to end the chain. Blood is the carrier of life. You carry in it the secret of creation within yourself. Your blood is sacred, for in it lives divine will....

RACE

To be of a race means to be able to think in a certain way. Our highest possession is the soul which was given to us. Whoever mixes with strange, lower races degrades the blood and soul which were given to him to be passed in purity to his children. He makes his children impure and commits the greatest crime which he can commit as a National Socialist.

Jim'll Fix It !

So the late Jimmy Savile was a sexual predator with a liking for underage girls?

Slowly but surely the truth about celebrity abusers of children and underage girls and boys is starting to leak out. The police have interviewed Gary Glitter (aka Paul Gadd) again, seems he was a pal of Jimmy Savile. There are rumours about senior Civil Servants being involved in Jimmy Savile's little games, possibly a highly placed member of staff at Number 10 Downing Street.

There are stories circulating that Jimmy Savile was good friends with Prince Charles, that Savile was a friend of various Prime Ministers, a regular guest at Chequers, the Prime Ministerial weekend retreat.

So what background security checks did Special Branch and MI5 carry out on Sir Jimmy Savile?

What did the security services discover?

What did the security services ignore or cover up?

Did Savile have information on highly placed individuals who shared his sexual interests?

Will the Establishment ever let the real truth come out?

'Perv - Watch'

WHAT EVER HAPPENED TO OUR GREEN AND PLEASANT LAND?

I have observed various changes in our Nation, our culture, and British society in general over the last 70 years.

The various racial groups who have invaded our country, in my opinion all this was planned. Then we have the gigantic increase in the world population, add the climate change, and we are beginning to see a massive break down in society' the drugs, child porn etc. But nothing happens in government that is not planned.

A civil war, or wars will break out in our country and over much of Europe, as the various racial and religious groups fight over what is left of our nations.

Do not expect much of the White people, they are either too old, too brain-washed, too liberal or too left-wing, or so corrupted by money and wealth, that they see us, the working-class as only working factory-fodder or cannon fodder.

The British public ?

They are all completely blind to our race or our culture; all these people are our enemies. So if they become the victims of the various ethnics, all we must do is to tell them to fight back in anyway that they can. If they do not, we should just use them as a small propaganda article, nothing more.

Remember; 'Those who are not with us, are against us.'

Looking at Our Current Government and Looking Back

I see the latest idea by this so-called Government is to privatise the roads.

So, not content with bleeding the indigenous British people of this sorry country dry, they don't stop at that.

The corrupt parasites who run the banks pay no interest on the measly savings that hard working pensioners have saved up. These greedy parasites seem quite content to take millions in bonuses while millions of British pensioners sit at home and freeze in the winter.

I am 74 years of age, 75 next March and I have served in the Army, worked all my life, spent my youth in the East End of London where I was born. Stratford and Bethnal Green, these were good communities, but are now a cesspit, full of the dregs of the Third World, you are lucky if you see a White face in some places.

But this incompetent parasite of a so-called Government turns a blind eye to all this, the cesspit they have made of this country makes a Third world country look like paradise.

I saw an old soldier who had served at El Alamein this weekend, and his words were,

"I look around now and I wonder if it was all worth it."

Yes, he was right ! They all died for nothing!

We fought the wrong people, our Anglo-Saxon brothers, I think many British people realise this now.

I saw Colin Jordan speak in Trafalgar Square in the 1960's, he made a good speech along with John Tyndall. He could see what was coming, but people shouted him down, but he knew that this country was destined to decline, and unless people wake up, it will continue to decline. I have five grandchildren and I know that they have no future. My heart bleeds for them.

Every time a Far-Right wing party tries in the elections, we get crap on TV about the War; about Hitler's rise to power, about the rise of the 'Nazis'.

BUT, people fail to realise that Germany was declining the way this country is declining now.

The Fuhrer, Adolf Hitler stood up for his people, he had the courage which this current British Government lacks.

Unless people realise that a National Socialist Government is the only answer, this country will continue to decline into a cesspit.

I wear a Sunwheel with pride and will continue to do so as long as I live !

RADICAL OPINIONS

Opinions expressed in this column do not necessarily reflect the official British Movement position or policy but are included to stimulate debate and discussion on a wide range of topics of interest to our National Socialist and racial Nationalist readership.

LEBENSBOHN ?

The numbers of our Race have dwindled over the last hundred years, but I won't go into why, as I think we are all aware of the reasons for this situation.

So how, as National Socialists, could we address the issue for our nation alone, other than the pro-family incentives we would put in place?

Another option might be surrogacy.

Surrogacy ? I hear you say, well yes.

Forget the stories in the media, or surrogacy in the cultura Marxist terms, but think of it in your own National Socialist terms.

The reason I thought of this is because my partner has done surrogacy twice now and both times for ordinary, normal White couples. From discussions with the first couple she helped, I found out that the State was actually making it easier for them to adopt a child from abroad, rather than here in the UK. I also remember some unfunny, so-called comedian who said that Britain needs mass immigration to keep our gene-pool vibrant. As a National Socialist I strongly disagree.

But back to surrogacy. There are two types of surrogacy; straight and host.

Host is where the couple in question use both their own sperm and eggs, (eggs may have been frozen as part of pre-cancer treatment for example).

Straight is where the surrogate uses her own eggs and the sperm of the father-to-be. This is creating a genetic code that would not come about in normal circumstances, but racially OK.

So surrogacy could help reverse the declining White British birth-rate by creating more White children for couples who for whatever reason cannot produce healthy children themselves.

The White British need to increase our numbers for a strong, healthy, indigenous population.

Surrogacy is a way that I believe, can assist that goal.

THE NATIONAL SOCIALIST STRUGGLE

WHAT CAN WE DO ?

Based on an article by the American NS activist Alan Hovis.

There are several steps that one can take to help us get closer to that better world which we all seek. But first we must realise that this New Order of life on this Earth will not come without struggle.

Our struggle, which will be protracted over generations, will not come without extreme dedication and discipline in support of one movement.

There have been many people since I have been involved as a National Socialist who came along wondering, "What can I do?"

They come along all energetic, ready to take on the world, but many of them have since faded away because they failed to see the bigger picture or failed to realise that this is a protracted struggle - a struggle that may take generations for its final victory to appear. This decadent world did not appear overnight and it will not go away overnight.

For a movement to obtain its objective it is going to take extreme discipline and dedication to the NS doctrine. With a single interpretation we will all follow the same path, motivated by the same vision.

We need dedicated individuals to support a movement unified by a shared common belief, speaking with a single voice, thus the NS leadership principle.

Some people start out on this track, but when they don't see immediate results or if they lose sight of the long struggle, they fade away. They don't realise how much their small contribution really means. Their part in the great Cause, no matter how small, rejects everything that we stand against, all the decadence, all the filth and rot, all the racial chaos. But most importantly their continuous contribution to one cause, be it financial, physical or practical, unites us all, National Socialists the world over, Spiritually. We are united together spiritually under a faith, under the faith of National Socialism!

It is a good feeling to me to know that I am not alone, that I have Comrades all over the world who are with me in thought, and support my beliefs no matter what obstacles I and they come across.

This NS 'spiritual support' cannot be destroyed by economic policies, or military power. This is something that is real and alive.

Adolf Hitler said before his death,

"It is necessary that I should die for my people; but my spirit will rise from the grave, and the world will know that I was right."

Conservative Government Cuts - Financial Pressures on British Families Plus - New Immigration Threats From Bulgaria and Romania

The situation that this country is currently in, I don't have to tell you, is getting worse by the day. Not only is the Conservative Government of David Cameron considering placing a cap on Child Benefits (Family Allowance) for families with more than two children, but the Home Secretary Theresa May has announced that under EU legislation, from 2013 the current immigration restrictions on Bulgaria and Romania will be lifted.

This means that while British families face further cuts to their income, our small country will face being flooded with even more economic migrants from Eastern Europe, especially Roma gypsies. This will mean a tidal wave of new 'Big Issue' vendors in our towns and cities, more beggars, more shoplifters and pick-pocket gangs. Plus a huge number of economic migrants claiming social security benefits, NHS treatment, housing and school places : - all the benefits that should be given as a priority to indigenous British families.

Those hidden hands behind our government are emphatic in their resolve to dilute the White British population and therefore the strength of our nation. This is their plan not only for Britain, but for the whole of Europe and every other country on this planet, a complete eradication of racial, national and cultural identities.

These are things that are known already by racially aware British Nationalists and National Socialists, a global conspiracy that is always denied by the Establishment.

But what of our National Family?

The strength of our National Socialist resolve must out weigh that of our covert enemy. We must be even more determined to support each other, and most definitely our children, to educate them and guide them, so that they can learn to recognise and overcome this abhorrent planned act of genocide aimed at our Nation's 'native' people.

The White British must not become extinct in their own homeland.

We must create a fortress mentality amongst our people, a fortress for our ideology. A fortress that is impenetrable to those dangerous, damaging forces, who would drive our people to extinction through mass immigration, race-mixing and ever reducing White British birth-rate. They want the British to have smaller families, or no children at all, yet flood our country with non-European people who always have large families, lots of children, requiring bigger houses, lots of health care, lots of school places and college places, eating into our country's shrinking social welfare budget.

We must create a siege mentality amongst our people, to stand together and hold fast and true beneath our Sunwheel banner, determined to defy the onslaught on our people and prepared to repel the attacks to come.

We must stand firm behind the 14 Words and defend our children and their future come what may.

BUILDING AN N.S. FUTURE

The creation of a National Socialist state in Great Britain is the ultimate goal of British Movement, and in order to achieve the creation of a National Socialist 'New Order' in the UK, we must first create the political conditions by which this situation can be realised.

This will be a long and difficult struggle, but it can be done and for the future of our people it must be done. We must right the wrongs inflicted upon our people in the name of multi-racialism and multi-culturalism, we must regain the birth-right of our people taken from them by stealth and the lies of democratic politicians and Left-wing ideologists. So-called progressive thinkers and opinion makers who have corrupted our nation's psyche.

We Will Have Our Country Back!

Multi-Cultural Britain - It Does Not Have To Be This Way !

Britain and Europe are poised on the threshold of a time of change; political change and economic change. The EU is in crisis and the tired old 'democratic' political systems are stagnating.

In Britain the old revolving Conservative/Labour government system hit the skids at the last general election and the Conservatives were forced into a coalition with the Liberal Democrats in a shaky political arrangement that will eventually kill off the Liberal Democrats.

Multi-culturalism is not working - no matter how the Establishment tries to window-dress British society, the majority of the White British population not only realise this, but also resent it.

London no longer looks like a British city, much less the capital city of a European nation that still has an overall majority White population.

The task of British National Socialists is to show the politically inactive majority White British that a multi-racial, multi-cultural future does not have to be their future. It is the task of National Socialist propagandists to show the politically inactive majority White British that what they see on their streets and TV screens, a multi-cultural Britain, can be undone.

The current make-up of the population of London;
IT DOES NOT HAVE TO BE THIS WAY!

A complete rejection of every facet of multi-racial and multi-culturalism will undermine and isolate those renegade politicians and social engineers who have foisted this dispicable situation on Britain.

To build the foundations of a future National Socialist state, we must give hope and a voice to the silent White majority that do not want a multi-racial future. A tidal wave of rejection will wash away the dark stain on our nation.

It can be done.

By building a grassroots NS alternative in all aspects of British society we can demonstrate that National Socialism works.

By generating a mass wave of NS propaganda as an alternative news channel, an alternative media, we can undermine the Establishment's grip on public information and counter their multi-culturalist propaganda and brain-washing.

National Socialism is a forward looking force for the future, it is not a nostalgic longing for the past. National Socialism is based on scientific principles, and is constantly evolving, it is not a static doctrine or stale, dried out dogma, but follows immutable concepts, chief among which is Race and Struggle.

LETTERS to the EDITOR

The views and opinions expressed on this page represent the views of our readers and their publication does not indicate support or endorsement of those opinions or adoption as official British Movement policy.

Dear Broadsword & Readers,

I am 74 years of age, and spent my youth in East London, in fact in Stratford, where at the age of 15, I was an engine cleaner on steam locomotives, where the circus called the 2012 London Olympics was situated.

When I say circus, I mean circus, run by a bunch of clowns, what a joke this has become. Visitors arriving at Stratford, they will have been confused, they will have thought that they had arrived in Africa, White faces here are getting rare. Also I would like to point out that most of the so called British athletes are of African origin, not British. For many years I was an NF member and a BNP member, I have served in the Army in past years, worked all my life and like many pensioners, wonder for WHAT?

Just to see this once great country decline into the dump it is now.

In the past I have seen Colin Jordan speak in Trafalgar Square in the 1960's; Sir Oswald Mosley in the late 1950's, when he tried to make a come back; Enoch Powell, and many more who would make a better job of running this country than the bunch of clowns we have in government now. But, the British people seem to turn their backs on people with courage. I have five grandchildren and I fear for their future, unless we have a party with courage, like a national socialist government, this country will continue to decline.

In the early years of Germany, Chancellor Otto von Bismarck said, "the English are very good at hypocrisy", yes, this Government is very good at that. They are quick enough to contradict Syria and other countries when this country is in decline; 12,000 people die every year in our sub-standard hospitals, with nurses who can't speak English; our schools are overcrowded with immigrants; a public transport system with out of date transport vehicles, the whole country is in a state. But I can see no future. In my opinion the only answer to this country's problems is a National Socialist Government.

So - Britain Awake ! D. O. Essex.

Dear Broadsword

With the closure of the 2012 London Olympics, David Cameron has promised to inject millions of extra pounds into British sport over the next 4 years in preparation for the next Olympics in Brazil. Surprisingly in 'democratic' Britain, the Labour Party haven't denounced the proposals. All 3 mainstream parties in agreement. What is happening? Could they suddenly see the importance of a fit and healthy nation, after years of promoting non-competitive or no sports in schools? Perhaps they are trying to emulate Hitler's Germany who in the 1936 Berlin Olympics won more gold medals than USA, Britain, India, Canada, Argentina, France and Norway combined.

Or perhaps it has more devious political overtones. Perhaps they saw in the Olympic Stadium, 99 per cent White British faces cheering on the Africans representing Great Britain. 'DS 88'

Dear Broadsword,

I am writing to congratulate British Movement's leadership on re-launching 'Young Wolf' the youth section of British Movement, in 2012. This is an opportune time because our country faces a very serious financial and economic crisis. One of the consequences of this is the steady increase in unemployment. This applies in particular to the 18 to 25 age group, especially the indigenous white working-class. A generation is being betrayed by the economic policies, of the incompetent 'Old Gang' of Westminster politicians over recent decades. The current Coalition Government has been aptly described as a bunch of toffs and rich boys, who are totally out of touch with ordinary people.

One major reason for rising unemployment levels is immigration. As the UK is a member of the European Union, there are no controls on immigrants from other EU Member States. With regard to immigration from outside the EU, there are minimal controls. It has been acknowledged that nobody knows how many illegal immigrants and asylum-seekers are in Britain. Multi-national companies also exploit a 'loop-hole' in the immigration rules by means of intercompany staff transfers. Businesses claim that they need foreign workers because British workers lack the necessary skills, or cannot read and write sufficiently, or lack the required work ethic. If so, this underlines the total failure of the UK education system to prepare our young people for future careers. Billions of pounds of tax-payers money has been spent on education over past decades. It has been wasted, because our schools, colleges and universities have been dominated by a Leftists and liberals who have brainwashed our children with the false benefits of multi-culturalism, 'diversity' and 'Gay rights'. Students leave their education having learnt about slavery and the 'Holocaust' but with minimal practical or work related skills.

We must appeal to White youth, who have resisted this brainwashing and are alienated and disenchanted. We must demonstrate to them that there is a real alternative to the corrupt and degenerate democratic system, and the culture of materialism. To reject consumerism driven by global capitalism and the alien financial interests, who are the puppet-masters controlling the New World Order.

We must spread our message to White youth, that the only real alternative is National Socialism, and call on them to unite with us under the Sunwheel banner and join the National Revolution.

We Will Have Our Country Back !

Greek police send crime victims to neo-Nazi 'protectors'

Helena Smith Athens

Greece's far-right Golden Dawn party is increasingly assuming the role of law enforcement officers on the streets of the bankrupt country, with mounting evidence that Athens are being openly directed by police to seek help from the neo-Nazi group, analysts, activists and lawyers say.

In return, a growing number of Greek crime victims have come to see the party, whose symbol bears an uncanny resemblance to the swastika, as a "protector". One victim of crime, an innocent 15-year-old girl, told the Guardian of her family's shock at being referred to the party when her brother was recently killed.

The symbol of Golden Dawn. The far-right party made large gains in the 2012 elections and has 18 MPs.

the police following an incident involving Albanian immigrants in their downtown apartment block. "They immediately said if it's an issue with immigrants go to Golden Dawn," said the 49-year-old, who fought for her job and safety, spoke only on condition of anonymity. "We don't condone Golden Dawn but there is an acute social problem that has come with the breakdown of the ing of security among lower and middle class people in the urban centre," she told the Guardian. "If the police and official mechanisms can't deliver and there is no recourse to justice, then you have to turn to other means of solutions."

Other Greeks with similar experiences said the far-rightists, captured into parliament on a ticket of tackling "immigrant crime" were simply doing the job of a defunct state that had left a growing number living overwhelmed by a "sense of powerlessness". "Nature hates vacuum and Golden Dawn is just filling a vacuum that no other party is addressing," one woman lamented. "It gives little people a sense that they can survive, that they are safe in their own homes."

BROADSWORD UPDATE THE POLITICAL POLICE RAID ON THE A K CHESTERTON TRUST

Following on from the report in Broadsword issue 44, we now have further information on the contrived police search of the home of AKC Trust /Candour Editor Mr Colin Todd.

Mr Todd was held under arrest for 24 hours at Winchester Police Station and was eventually charged with 'theft of police property', allegedly the search uncovered a pile of police road signs in a shed on his property. Mr Todd has never seen these signs nor knew of their existence until the items 'materialised' during the police search.

The original search was carried out for an alleged 'firearms offence'. Before leaving the Police Station on supposed 'theft' charges, he was handed a Schedule of Items Seized from his home and was told -

"Special Branch have your computers".

On May 21st 2012, Mr Todd sent in his initial complaint to the IPCC (the Independent Police Complaints Commission)

His complaints are against;

The Chief Constable of Hampshire and every officer, uniformed and plain clothes, who took part in the illegal raid on his property and home in Hampshire on the dates of the 8th and 9th of March 2012.

Mr Todd estimates that between 15 and 20 officers were directly involved. At this point he is waiting for formal responses to his complaints.

There can be little doubt that Special Branch were behind this over resourced raid on Mr Todd's property, the whole farcical excuse for sending in a mob of uniformed officers on an entirely spurious warrant was just a smokescreen for the 'secret police' to hide behind as they ransacked the premises and carried off whatever they deemed to be of intelligence value to them.

Previous examples of such raids and seizures on the premises of Nationalist activists and publishers show that Special Branch make up the rules as they go along and bend the law to suit their agenda. such is the power of the secret state and its total disregard for actual legal process.

WHEN LEFTIST-LIBERAL NIGHTMARES COME TRUE !

Athens - Greece - September 2012

This report appeared in the Guardian on Saturday 29th September 2012, a horrified Guardian correspondent reported on the growing influence of the pro-NS Golden Dawn party in the Greek capital. The article spoke volumes about soft Left-liberal attitudes on race, immigration and the presence in Greece of thousands of illegal immigrants and so-called asylum-seekers. The soft-Left are appalled that the Greek authorities are now cracking down on illegal immigrants and are daring to arrest and deport them by the thousand. The Golden Dawn are running special food aid programmes in impoverished working-class districts of Athens, but only provide free food and clothing to Greek citizens, this of course shocks the Guardian writers, Golden Dawn actually puts fellow Greeks before non-Aryan immigrants!

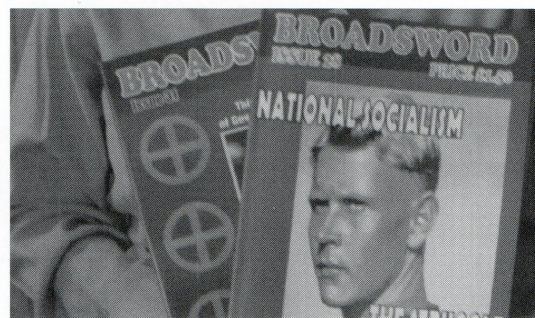

Even worse from the liberal perspective, the underpaid and over-stretched Greek police actually seek the help of the highly organised Golden Dawn street activists in dealing with immigrant crime in inner city areas of Athens. There are Golden Dawn street patrols that robustly evict illegal immigrant squatters and street beggars, Roma gypsy pick-pocket gangs and drug-dealers, something that the police have previously been politically prevented from doing. The Guardian reported that a Greek woman who was told the police that she was being troubled by Albanian immigrants was instructed by the police to contact the Golden Dawn, "if it's an issue with immigrants go to Golden Dawn".

The unhappy liberal journalist referred to what she called racially-motivated attacks, (actually anti-crime street patrols by Golden Dawn activists) "Street vendors from Asia and Africa have also been targeted."

What the article did not ask was, why are there Asian and African street vendors on the streets of Athens in the first place?

All this horrifies the British Left and their liberal, internationalist fellow-travellers. They are terrified that the example of the Golden Dawn might be repeated elsewhere in Europe and direct action by pro-NS racial Nationalist organisations against illegal immigrants and Roma gypsy camps might become the norm. Suddenly their great social experiment, multi-cultural and multi-racial Europe is under threat and worst of all for the Left, is that ordinary white Europeans (and British) actually approve and support such actions.

Perhaps there is a glimmer of hope out there, Golden Dawn is showing the way - it can be done.
